DR. C. M. SHELDON VISITS HONOLULU FOR A FEW WEEKS

Famous Author and Minister is En Route to Australasia; First Trip on the Pacific

En route to New Zealand, where he will deliver a series of lectures under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association, Dr. Charles M.

Dr. C. M. Sheldon, who is visiting in Honolulu en route to land of the Southern Cross.

Sheldon, famous author, reformer and minister, arrived in Honolulu last night in company with Mrs. Sheldon and their son, and will remain in Honolulu about five weeks before proceeding to the land of the Southern Cross.

"This is my first trip to Honolulu," said Mr. Sheldon this morning. "In fact, it is the first time I was ever on the Pacific ocean. Of course, I have had but little opportunity to see very much of Honolulu, but what I have seen certainly has made a deep impression."

For many years Doctor Sheldon was pastor of the Central Congregational church at Topeka, Kansas, but some time ago resigned his pastorate and became engaged in lecturing throughout the country. On one occasion he took complete charge for a week of the Topeka (Kansas) Daily Capital, just to show the people "how Jesus would run a newspaper." Aside from being a prominent lecturer and minister, Doctor Sheldon has gained no small reputation for himself as an author. A few of his recent works are, "In His Steps, or What Would Jesus Do?", "Of His Blood," and
"When Jesus Comes."

Doctor Sheldon has been secured by the local Young Men's Christian Association to conduct the first of the series of Sunday night meetings for men, which will be held in the Empire theater a week from next Sunday. These meetings will be held during July and August. Central Union church also is arranging to have Doctor Sheldon speak on two occasions during his visit here.

MASSACHUSETTS GIRL
WEDS NORMAL TEACHER IN SIMPLE CEREMONY

Miss Mary Hayes Arrives on Lurline to Meet Fiance Who Came Here 6 Months Ago

A romance begun in Massachusetts entered upon a new chapter in Hawaii this morning when Kenneth C.
Bryan, of the faculty of the Territorial Normal and Training School, was united in marriage to Miss Mary Hayes, of Westfield, Massachusetts.

Mr. Bryan's former home is in Lynn, Mass., and it was in the old Bay state that he met Miss Hayes.
He came here six months ago to accept the position at the Normal School and likes the island so much that he has determined to make his home here. He has been very successful in his work as a teacher and has already come to be one of the most valued members of the faculty.

Miss Hayes arrived on the steamer Lurline this morning and was met off the harbor by her fiance, who went out to meet her on the customs' launch. The passengers aboard the Lurline had learned of the romance and the couple were showered with rice and other symbols of marital happiness and good luck wishes.

They were married at 10:30 o'clock this morning at the home of the Rev.
A. A. Ebersole, associate minister of Central Union church. Dr. and Mrs.
Hamilton Weir, of Portland, Ore., personal friends of Mr. Bryan, attended the couple at the simple but pretty and impressive ceremony that united the two who have been separated since the groom came to Hawaii.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan will make their home in Honolulu. After a short while they will be at home at Cassidy's.

CARTER RETURNS; WILL ANNOUNCE CANDIDACY SOON

islands between now and November and to visit every nook and corner of the territory just as on Hawaii I visited many nooks and corners."

Results Outlined.
Returning with Mr. Carter were two Hawaiian Progressives, J. U. Joseph and David Kalanikouhale, Sr. They regard with satisfaction the results of their trip, which Carter outlined today as follows:

"Our trip through the two Kona's, Kau and Puna, made for the purpose of sowing a little seed, has been very satisfactory. In 12 days' time, we succeeded in organizing 18 clubs in different villages, and our new party has been strengthened by the open declaration of such men as Oliver Lau, Joe Kahanamoku, J. K. Laible, David Hall, Richard Pakio, David Kea-wa, Thomas Martin, David M. Keliyao, Kulu Nahulu, J. K. Hooni, James A. Ahia, Solomon Kaluna, Richard L. man and George P. Kamaeha; and the interest shown by such men as Judge Haaboe of Kalaupapa and George Mundon of Pahoa and many others too numerous to mention, which is indeed gratifying, to say nothing of the hospitality of such men as Julian Monsarret, Sam Johnson and Henry Lyman.

"At Hilo we had the few Progressives there for luncheon, at which we formed the last and 18th Progressive Club, with three young active men as its officers: Ted Guard, president; A. M. Webster, secretary; H. B. Mariner, treasurer. This will probably disappoint some of the Hilo people who thought that the only Progressives there were among the 'older men.' Hilo is a beautiful little town and evidently a great place for rumors, and one was that Charlie Rice visited the 'Rainbow City' for the purpose of securing the assistance of Stephen Desha, in which he failed.
Our experience on the Big Island is similar to that in Honolulu. In that those who joined our party seem to come largely from the Democratic ranks. I am inclined to think that the people of Honolulu underestimate Kuhio's strength."

Interested in Equal Suffrage.
Among the chief subjects of Carter's talk were statehood for Hawaii, equal suffrage, legislation for human rights rather than property rights, revision of the taxation system, courts of conciliation.

"I found the greatest interest in equal suffrage and then in statehood," he comments. "In a number of places we were told that the precincts had never had such a statement of new ideas. I made the point that Hawaii wants statehood so that we cannot be counted as a concession; and that a constitutional convention should be held, granted by Congress, which, if intelligent and patriotic, will help us toward statehood. Under these circumstances Hawaii would not be side-tracked in Washington."

"On this trip our work was very largely among Hawaiians and their interest and appreciation was distinctly encouraging. Some significant incidents happened at the meetings. In one place—Twelve-Mile, Oahu—the precinct club wished to have the ten-nate platform changed so that a prohibition plank would be inserted. This club is composed exclusively of Hawaiians. At another place a chap interrupted the program with the question when we were going to buy some wine. I told him he must think we were Republicans."

"The voters are thinking for themselves and our platform will show it." Carter will stay in Honolulu for the next few days but intends within a short time to visit Kauai and Maui.

CENTRALIZATION OF CHARITIES IS MEETING'S PLAN

A plan for the central registration of all relief cases, for the better carrying out of the plan for the cooperation of all charitable organizations, was agreed upon yesterday afternoon when the delegates representing 60 of the 130 charitable societies of Honolulu met and unanimously adopted the resolution introduced by C. H. Diekey.
The resolution follows:

"Whereas, there is much unrelated charitable activity in the city of Honolulu; and;

"Whereas, cooperation is at the base of all modern scientific charity and social welfare work; therefore,

Be it resolved, that we, the directors of the Associated Charities of Hawaii, do all in our power to increase cooperation, using as a means to that end central registration of all relief cases, and also of all social welfare organizations of the city."

Manager W. Spencer Bowen's quarterly report showed that the demands for assistance during June were only one-third of what they were four months ago.

According to advices received here last night, Malcolm Argyle Franklin, recently appointed collector of customs for this port, will arrive in Honolulu July 16 on the Pacific Mail liner Manchuria, to assume his new duties. Mr.
Franklin will be accompanied by his brother, T. B. Franklin, and his sister-in-law, who will remain in Hawaii a month and then proceed to the Orient.

RITCHIE STILL ELUDES POLICE OF THIS CITY

Seattle Detective Will Leave in Matsonia for Seattle With But One Prisoner

Sergeant Detective McNamee of Seattle will return to the north Pacific coast as a passenger in the Matson Navigation liner Matsonia tomorrow

R. J. Ritchie, whose presence in the Honolulu police station would gladden the hearts of the entire department.

In company with A. Deputer, wanted by the Washington authorities for alleged forgery and embezzlement.

Despite the offer of a substantial reward for information leading to his apprehension and arrest, R. J. Ritchie, who Detective McNamee states was the ringleader in the series of questionable financial operations at Seattle and Vancouver, B. C., is still at large. His sensational escape from the city and county jail some weeks ago has caused officers with the police and detective department to set a watch on the departure of all steamers for the Orient or the United States.

In the opinion of the police, Ritchie is still on this island. The United States transport Logan which Ritchie was first supposed to have taken for Manila, was carefully searched during the passage to the Philippines, the officers reporting to the local police that the much wanted man was not found on board.

CALIFORNIA PLAYERS MEET 2ND INFANTRY IN FINAL GAME TODAY

The final appearance of the University of California baseball team is scheduled for this afternoon, when the collegians will go against the 2d infantry team. California is pretty well shot to pieces, after a string of minor accidents and mishaps, and it won't be known until the last minute what the lineup will be. Then the cripples will be paraded, and the best of the bunch impressed. Probably Dodge will do the pitching.

The game is scheduled for 4 o'clock at Athletic Park.

A big crowd of supporters of the baseball team of the 2d will turn out for today's game between the Californians and the regimental nine. With Sloan, the big fellow who has shown such class, in the box for the 2d, everybody at Shafter is hopeful that the local team will put one over on the college players. Lieut. Lyman will be back of the plate and the remainder of the lineup will be as follows:

Dossett, if; Burton, ss; Sterquel, 2b; Zuwalski 3b; Bittick, rf; Zuwadski, cf; Lerwitz, lb. The Fort Shafter post exchange has sold tickets for the game under the usual arrangement with the management of Athletic Park and this plan makes it possible for a big attendance of the men of the regiment to be present, as it entirely overcomes the end-of-the-month financial situation.

NEW DEPTS. TO BE TURNED OVER TO CITY TOMORROW

period. At the first of the new year, the ordinance states, the engineer and ex-officio manager of the systems shall submit a proposed change in the rates to the board for its consideration. It is understood that after January 1 the rates are to be increased considerably, but just how much will possibly depend on how the supervisors make out with the departments in this period. Wall says there is no doubt but that they can break even at least—that is, not lose money on the new acquisitions. He says, however, that to do this it will be necessary to cut down the overhead expenses a great deal.

In order to economize in such expenses it has been arranged for all collections to be made through the city and county treasurer's office. He will make a special report on the money thus received.
